Profile

I am a versatile designer with over 3 years of experience spanning UI/UX and graphic design. I really enjoy making digital things that are creative and functional together. Beyond screens, I like using my visual skills to design promotional materials for community projects to help them grow. Most importantly, the ability to work effectively within different teams, having an initial vision given by the client and ending with a successful, user-centered design, drives me forward. I bring a strong commitment to excellence and innovation in every project I take on.
